

Villagers Cancer Support Group

at Village Health Foundation

Do you know what it feels like when you gather with the members (Villagers) of the Cancer Support Community LA - Village Health Foundation Cancer Support Group for patients and caregivers? Our group is professionally-facilitated so you can feel heard and seen in a kind and caring environment. Members listen and share with one-another – creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere where vulnerability is natural. So much so, that you will look forward to the next get-together. We share ideas, joys, challenges, and personal triumphs as we embrace each other's journey, all from a culturally aware prospective. Come join us, the CSCLA/VHF Villagers Cancer Support Group. Meet new friends and share your wisdom as we join hands from afar and get comforted along the way.

All programs and services are provided at no cost to participants. First time participants, please email info@cancersupportla.org
